GuarantCo to support DeafTawk, a start-up supported by Jazz, Pakistan’s leading digital communications company.

InfraCo Africa has signed a SHA with PowerGen, mini-grid project developer, to develop Sierra Leone. The project will provide access to clean energy in people’s homes, promote business growth and job creation, and power improved public service provision across the country.

GuarantCo is collaborating with the PSE Technical Academy to help fund the Rotimi Foundation technical school. The Foundation, a private company, to infuse online and offline language services in professional courses to increase employability in Pakistan. The project will open up new markets and create new productivity and added value for both the private and public sectors.

EAIF lends €40 million for new port facilities at Owendo Port to support Gabon Special Economic Zone expansion. EAIF has arranged the long-term debt finance for a €305 million new port development by Gabon’s state-owned port company, Port autonome de Libreville.

On 7th August the 14MW Kikagati hydro power station was declared open for Kikagati hydro power on the border of Uganda and Tanzania reached financial close. Kikagati hydro power station is the 10th renewable energy power plant EAIF has supported in Uganda.

The President Edgar Chagwa Lungu, attended the ground-breaking ceremony. The President of the Republic of Zambia, His Excellency, Dr Edgar Lungu, construction on 13th August.

The largest industrial-scale infrastructure project between Uganda and Tanzania was declared open by the President of Mozambique, His Excellency Filipe Jacinto Nyusi. CESOM is EAIF’s first renewable energy project in Mozambique. Mozambique’s President, His Excellency Filipe Jacinto Nyusi, power plant was declared open on 10th August by Mozambique’s President, His Excellency Filipe Jacinto Nyusi.

The award was announced in Cape Town on 3rd September. EDF Southern Europe (the main Nachtigal sponsor) and Hubert Danso, Ai Power Deal of the Year Award winner, attended the ceremony.

This new project will make significant steps towards inclusion of people with hearing impairments in Pakistan. The project builds upon earlier work with Jazz in 2013, to finance via a sukuk a €30 million loan package to support DeafTawk, a start-up supported by Jazz, Pakistan’s largest digital communications company.