case studies and the latest evidence research, highlighting:

We have published the disclosures of greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions financed by loans and investments.

PIDG is delighted to announce that we have joined the Partnership for Carbon

On the show are Marco Serena, Head of Development Impact at PIDG, and Emma-Lyn Horvath, Senior

In the run-up to COP26, we learn about the dimensions that inform the PIDG approach to InfraCo Asia and Albario Engineering (AEPL) have entered a joint investment and development agreement establishing Prism Energy – a joint venture company, to develop and implement commercial &

Pakistan Rooftop Solar COD announced their commitment to finance construction of the

InfraCo Africa, and its project partner, JCM Power (JCM), have Golomoti Solar in the future."

Kenya's future economic development under its "Big 4" agenda. As the anchor investor in the Acorn with Acorn, a well-respected developer of high-quality student accommodation. Expanding Acorn's investment vehicle, will enable Acorn to scale its business, building on the company's track

US$10m (Kenyan Shilling Equivalent) investment, made through InfraCo Africa's dedicated (REIT) committing to support the delivery of affordable student accommodation in Nairobi. The

InfraCo Africa has subscribed to the Acorn Holdings Ltd (Acorn) Real Estate Investment Trust

Acorn

"Growing Africa's digital infrastructure is a key foundation stone in recovering the continent from the global

Liquid Telecommunications Bond

PIDG company Emerging Africa Infrastructure Fund (EAIF) has lent €29 million to support the of NinetyOne, the managers of the Emerging Africa Infrastructure Fund (EAIF). In this article, she looks at disproportionately affects women of our society."

multifaceted form of discrimination that

As part of this year's global International Women's Day #ChooseToChallenge campaign, the PIDG

Philippe Valahu, CEO, PIDG

Don't forget to catch up on the latest updates and other news below.

I would like to thank our partner companies for their contributions to this campaign, which highlighted the ways in which they challenge gender bias and inequality through the work we do together.

While we have used our reasonable efforts to ensure the accuracy of the data used in this communication,

Data is provided to PIDG by its project and investment partners, including the fund managers that have

How learning from accidents and incidents is fundamental to improving safety performance

The role of human factors in accidents and the human performance principles for promoting serious incidents that have occurred on PIDG funded projects article, podcast and animation on InfraCredits. The bulletin also features a conversation with

Director of Portfolio Management, moderated the panel

Jarratt, have joined InfraCredit's Board

this goal. 2030.

Read

better with InfraCo Asia'. The article covers recent highlights from the business and emerging which was held as a virtual event this year. We highlighted projects and initiatives we support

WeF's Davos week (The Davos Agenda)

Blended Finance in the Least Developed Countries.

on the future development of renewables and renewables tariffs in the Asian markets.

WEF's Davos week (The Davos Agenda)

Spring 2021

Want to change how you receive these emails?

update your preferences

Tel: +44 (0) 203 848 6740 |

For more information, you can view our information from PIDG.