The Private Infrastructure Development Group Ltd. (“PIDG”) is a private limited company incorporated in the Republic of South Africa on 5 November 2004. PIDG was established by the United Kingdom Government as a limited liability company under English law to implement the Private Infrastructure Development Group (“PIDG”) initiative.

PIDG is part of the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office (FCDO). The Founder Members of PIDG are the FCDO and the Governments of Bangladesh, South Africa, Nigeria, Pakistan, Indonesia and the African Union. The Board of Directors is composed of representatives of the Founder Members.

For more information, you can view our website or EAIF Insights.

Highlighting GuarantCo’s business news and updates over the last month,

While we have used our reasonable efforts to ensure the accuracy of the data used in this communication, we will not be liable for any loss or damage arising as a result of its use.

InfraCo Africa, the project will build an additional 22 mini-grids across Busia County, in northwest Uganda. To date, RVE.SOL has established 20 operational mini-grids in the country. With support from PIDG’s involvement will provide additional funding for the scale-up needed to make substantive contributions from the Ghanaian and Nigerian governments.

You can unsubscribe from this list or read more information from PIDG.